

Hilde Demarré

Hilde holds a master Degree in Political Sciences from the University of Ghent and an Advanced Degree in Communication Sciences. She's also a trained cross-border family mediator. She worked as a case manager at the Belgian Ministry of Foreign Affairs for 2 years and at Child Focus, the Belgian 116000 hotline, for 5 years, mainly dealing with international child abduction cases.

Since 2008, she works as a Policy Officer at Child Focus where she created the Cross-border Family Mediators' Network in 2012. She is actively involved in the promotion of cross-border family mediation in Europe. In 2014, she joined Missing Children Europe where she is responsible the further development of cross-border mediation in family disputes.